
The arrows are the symbol for drifting snow. Drifting snow is an uneven distribution of snowfall/snow depth caused by strong surface winds. Drifting snow may occur during or after a snowfall. Drifting snow is usually associated with blowing snow. Learn more about our weather in JetStream - An Online School for Weather.

National Weather Service

www.weather.gov www.srh.weather.gov/jetstream